

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS and MALIGNANT FEVERS
is recommended.
Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons who have been adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak
in favour of a medicine than consists of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously produced as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken in every two weeks during the presence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further,
in the earlier stages of those diseases for use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases seemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly safe, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and could be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

dicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Violent cramps in
the stomach and

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that irritating smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,
So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free
from corrosive and repellent minerals,
the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes
the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ring-
worms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,
A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of nature
or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops
For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

At the place of sale pamphlets
may be had gratis, describing cases permuted by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this

Proposals
FOR Publishing by Subscription, and now ready for the press, a series of historical volumes, which when finished will assume the title of Universal History Americanised;
Or, an historical view of Europe, Asia, Africa and America,
from the earliest records to the nineteenth century—with a particular reference to the state of society, literature, religion,
and form of government in the United States of America.

BY DAVID RAMSAY, M. D.
Life is so short and time so valuable,
that it were happy for us if all great works were reduced to their quintessence. Sir William Jowls.

PROSPECTUS.
ASIA.
The Asiatic part of this work contains a general view of the antediluvians—of the general deluge—of the re-settlement of the Globe, after that great event—of the primitive postdiluvian nations, which were formed in Asia, the cradle of the world. Their various ramifications, revolutions; and of the general course of Empire.

AFRICA.
The African part, contains a concise
history of Egypt, Carthage, Numidia, Mauritania, Abyssinia, of the Piratical
States, and the Hottentots, with a grouped view of its uncivilized settlements.

EUROPE.
The European part, contains the history of Greece and Rome, from their origin to their dissolution—of the various nations which were conquered by them—
and of the nations by which the Romans themselves were finally conquered, and of the nations which were formed from the fragments of the Roman Empire, and the various revolutions of the latter, together with a view of the nations which never were subjected to the Romans.

AMERICA.
The American part, contains a general
history of the Western continent, under the heads of Free, European, and Aboriginal or unconquered America. The first contains a history of the United States, from their first settlement as English Colonies, till the present time.—
The second, of all parts dependant on Europe.—And the third, of all that are till owned by the Aborigines.

It is expected that the whole will be comprised in 10 or 12 octavo volumes,
of between four and five hundred pages
each—to be printed in Philadelphia,
on good paper and fair types, for $3 1-3 per volume, in sheep binding, or $4 1-3 Calf Gilt, to be paid for on delivery.

AUTHORITIES.
This work has been in contemplation upwards of 40 years. The project of it was conceived in 1786, on reading the Universal History, then recently edited in 60 volumes, by a society of gentlemen in England. The original idea of extracting the quintessence of that voluminous work, which contained the most complete system of history the world had then seen, has ever since been enlarging and improving by an attentive perusal of the histories written by Robertson, Home, Gibbon, and other modern authors—of the Asiatic researches—of the works of Sir William Jones, and other learned Orientalists—
the publications of intelligent travellers,
who, in the course of the last half century have explored almost every region of the Globe. These collectively have thrown a blaze of light on countries comparatively unknown, and on portions,
both of ancient and modern history which were confused and obscure at the period
when the writers of the Universal history published their work. The arrangement of materials collected from these sources commenced in the year 1786,
when, in consequence of the surrender of Charleston to Sir Henry Clinton, the author was suddenly released from a sea
of business and sent as a prisoner of war to the British Garrison then in St. Augustine, and there confined for eleven months, without any peculiar employment. Steady progress has been made for the last ten years in correcting and transcribing the work for publication.

UNITED STATES.
The History of the United States is given at full length—that of foreign countries is more or less expended or contracted in proportion to the intrinsic importance of each—its tendency to illustrate portions of Holy Writ—the Greek and Latin Classics—and also in proportion to its connexion with the U. States, or as furnishing useful practical information to its citizens; or as the paternal suit of their ancestors.

The above sketch of the nature and objects of this immense work, which has occupied the attention of the Author for upwards of 40 years, was found among his papers, and is now given to the public in his own words. Since that period, a few chapters have been added by the Reverend SAMUEL STANHOPE SMITH,

which brings it down to the close of the last war.

The publication commences with a third impression of the History of the U.
States, in three volumes, which is all that has ever appeared. The whole will not be delivered under 13 or 20 months. It is proper to state, that the gentlemen who have the direction of it are neither booksellers nor printers, and receive no
pecuniary consideration for their trouble
—but are willing to make the necessary
advances to carry it into execution provided the sale is warranted by public patronage. The profits arising are to be appropriated for the support and education of his children, four of each sex: to them its success is a matter of deep importance.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND DAILY ADVERTISER.

PUBLISHED BY
SAMUEL SNOWDEN,
ROYAL STREET.

Daily Gazette 87...Country Gazette 25.

SATURDAY, APRIL 18, 1818.

Mr. Snowden,

The following original lines are submitted to the perusal of your fair readers, in the hope that some compassionate bosom may be induced to tranquillize the mind of a poor and almost broken-hearted bachelor.

Where shall I find the lovely fair
Whose heart, as light as ambient air,
Ascends beyond this gloom?
Whose soul abhors the pomp and glare
Of gay attire or turbid hair
In feathers' richest plume?

The corset belles I can't admire—
Who, to indulge a vain desire,
Destroy the infant race!
They sacrifice to pride and show,
The purest gem that mortals know...
Fair spotless innocence.

The talking flirt I can't admire—
Who in display creates desire
To enslave frail erring youth:
I can not, shall not, will not have
The midnight reveller or slave,
The enemy of truth.

I think I could admire—revere—
The modest nymph, with heart sincere,
A thirst for joys above;
Whose generous soul's with ardor fired
To obtain the bliss by heaven inspired...
Peace, happiness and love;—

Not at the circus, ball or play,
To spend the short and fleeting day
By heaven assign'd to man—
But in domestic, arduous strife,
Improve the golden days of life,
In love to God and man.

Where shall I find—oh, tell me where,
The virtuous, unassuming fair,
Who seeks not here her rest—
But looks beyond time's narrow bound,
Where ocean's depths of love profound Forever renders blest.

Come, loveliest nymph that treads the plain!
And read and feel my plaintive strain—
Some comfort let me have:
Tell me, oh tell me where's thy rest,
And make a lone wanderer blest,
Whilst travelling to the grave.

ALEXANDRIANUS.

From the Franklin Gazette.

The happiest Impromptu in the English language, is the following by Dr. Young.

The doctor is related to have been walking in his garden at Welwyn, with lady Elizabeth Lee, whom he afterwards married, and another female friend. The duke of Wharton, his patron, stopped at the doctor's door, and sent a message to him requesting to see him. Dr. Young told the servant who brought it to inform his grace, that he was engaged, and could not come. The ladies insisted that he should go, lest his grace should be offended; and fully taking hold of his arms, led him towards the house. When they had come to the gate of the garden, the doctor turned round to the ladies, and laying his hands upon his breast, bowed, and said,

Thus Adam look'd, when from the garden driv'n,
And thus disputed orders sent from Heaven:
Like him I go, but yet to go am loth;
Like him I go, for angels drove us both.
Hard was his fate, but mine still more unkind,
His Eve went with him—mine remains behind.

A gentleman in England has discovered a method of preventing mildew in peach-trees, which has never failed of success in an experience of nine years. In January and February, if the trees are in a sickly state, (the months of March or April in New-England will answer as well) take away all the mould from the roots as carefully as possible, and put in its place fresh rotten turf from an old pasture without any dung—and the trees not only will recover their health, but produce a crop of fine swelled fruit.

ALEXANDRIA:

SATURDAY, APRIL 18, 1818.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Friday, April 17, 1818.

Yesterday Mr. Lewis offered for the future consideration of the house a string of resolutions, purporting to be intended as amendments to the constitution, to the following effect:

That the president shall not have the power of approving or disapproving bills or joint resolutions passed by the two houses of congress.

That the senate and house of representatives shall appoint by joint ballot the following heads of departments:

A secretary of the treasury, who shall appoint all the officers belonging to that department.

A secretary of war, who shall appoint all the officers under him in that department.

A secretary of the navy, who shall appoint his officers.

And a postmaster general, who shall appoint the officers of that department.

During the recess of congress vacancies to be filled by the president, subject to rejection by congress at the following session.

The heads of departments to be amenable to congress for all appointments made by them; and when any are convicted of any crime or misdemeanor, or dismissed for neglect, their names to be advertised for six months in the public newspapers in every state.

Lastly, no member of congress to be appointed to any office for twelve months after his ceasing to be one.

These singular propositions were read and ordered to lie on the table.

The bill authorizing the Bank of the United States, to appoint a vice-president being under consideration,

A motion was made to postpone the bill indefinitely by Mr. Poindexter, which led to a smart debate, in which the merits of that institution were freely canvassed—being denied by Mr. Moore and Mr. Mercer, and defended by General Smith, who adduced undeniable facts to prove that it had been of great advantage to the country. The motion for postponement, however, was carried by 85 yeas to 50 nays.

Some persons present seemed to consider this question as a test of the feeling of the house in respect to the U. States Bank. I hope it is not so, since if it were, that institution stands not as it ought to do in point of legislative support. This bill, which was certainly reasonable and could do no mischief, is lost forever.

The invalid pension bill being under the consideration of the house in committee, Mr. Clay appealed to them very eloquently on the part of a little boy, whose father was killed at the battle of Bladensburg, and after enduring the most indescribable torture from the wound by which he was cut off, died, recommending this boy to the care of his country.—The tender age of the child, and the circumstances which cast him thus on the humanity of the country, of themselves sufficiently interesting, were rendered poignantly affecting by the melancholy account that the unfortunate young creature was born deaf and dumb—and the tale of sorrow lost nothing in the telling of Mr. Clay; whose object was to have the boy sent to and supported for a few years in that admirable institution the Asylum of the deaf and dumb in Connecticut. He therefore moved that a pension of $50 dollars a year should be appropriated for that purpose, to be expended under the direction of the secretary of war. The motion was carried with only one voice in opposition to it; and it may be doubted whether that was any thing more than an involuntary Grumble.

Yesterday morning, an inquest was held on the body of WILLIAM FULTON, of Yeocomico, who was drowned in the Potomac, some months past. Verdict—accidental death.

The United States, after having been almost exclusively commercial, are fast becoming almost exclusively agricultural. Our merchants are borne down by our western farmers. These two great divisions of society, with extreme impolicy, are hostile to each other. The farmers were long shamefully treated by the merchants; and the latter are now undergoing castigation. If it were possible to make them harmonize, it would be equally to the interests of both. The wheel, however, will continue to turn. By the time commerce is nearly strangled upon the Atlantic coast, thick settlements upon the Mississippi will have cleared its navigation, and our western posterity finding an easy access to the Mexican Gulf, and thence to the coast of North America, will be mercantile. We eastern folks may then inhabit the "back countries," occasionally quitting our ploughs to enjoy the refinement, luxury, and grandeur of some western metropolis.

Extract of a letter dated St. Thomas, 11th March, to a commercial house in New-York.

Our accounts from the Maine are to the last instant. Several battles, fought near Calabosa, with varied success on either side, and ultimately terminating in favor of the king's troops, had caused a momentary perplexity among the inhabitants of Caracas and Lagaira; but confidence was about restoring, and the embargo that had been laid on all shipping a fortnight previous was taken off.

An elegant service of plate has been presented to com. Stephen Decatur, by his townsmen, "in testimony of his brilliant service to his country, and the glory which his deeds have reflected on his name." This service of plate was executed, the Philadelphia Gazette says, by the first workmen in that city, and the principal pieces bore the following inscription: "By the citizens of Philadelphia, to their townsmen, com. Decatur, esteemed for his virtue, honored for his valor."

COWARDLY AND BRUTAL ATTACK.

On Saturday, between 5 and 6 o'clock, as Mr. Coleman, the editor of this paper, was walking up Murray-street, at the corner of Church-street, some person behind him, and without giving him any previous notice or warning, struck him a blow with some weapon on the back part of the head, which instantly felled him to the ground, and so entirely stunned him as to render him utterly helpless and motionless. While Mr. C. was in this condition the blows were repeated, accompanied by kicks in the side from the assailant. Mr. C. at length recovered sufficiently to rise, but so much disordered as to be unable to defend himself. In this condition he staggered towards his assailant, and, as soon as he recovered his sight, perceived that the cowardly assassin was the same H. B. Hagerman who lately disgraced the cockade he wears by his conduct at Kingston. The ruffian now repeated the blows upon his unresisting victim, and when his malice seemed to have been completely glutted, retreated a few steps from him. He turned round, however, and seeing that Mr. C. was dreadfully wounded, that he was covered with blood, and utterly exhausted, this cowardly savage returned again to the assault, and once more repeated the blows on the head and face. Mr. C. was now taken into a neighboring grocery, and from thence to his own house in a carriage, accompanied by two friends and a physician. He was immediately bled, had his wounds dressed, and was put to bed.

We are well aware that the public has already pronounced that there cannot be any justification for conduct so base, and, at the same time, so dastardly; but, in order that they may fully understand what led to it, we shall republish what has appeared in this paper against Hagerman. About the first of this month, Mr. Myer, a respectable lawyer at Kingston, (Hudson) sent to Mr. Coleman the following letter, with a writ to take Hagerman. [Here follows the letter as published in the Evening Post of April 3.]

"We publish the following letter at the request of a respectable correspondent, whose name is at the service of the implicated; but we hope, for the honor of manhood, the facts may not be true."

"Kingston, Ulster Co. March 27.

"W. Coleman, Esq.,
Sir—I trust you will excuse the liberty I have taken to direct this letter to you, for publication, if you shall think it proper, the ground of the suit. Mrs. Radcliff, the plaintiff, keeps a stage house in this village. Hagerman, together with Gen. Stedford, Gen. Van Buren, Col. Varian, and others (the court martial) put up at her house three weeks yesterday, on their way to Delhi, (Delaware County,) Hagerman and Gen. Stedford slept in separate beds in the same room; the beds were as good as any gentleman would desire—no objection was made to them. After they had left Mrs. Radcliff's, she went up to the room, and found the glass of a framed picture, representing Boonaparte chained to a rock, &c. broke in pieces; and on taking off the bed-clothes she found that the contents of the chamber-pot had been carefully emptied into the bed. Some of the members of the court-martial arrived in town from Delhi on Saturday night last; Mr. Hagerman and some others, did not arrive till Sunday, and he, after taking breakfast, went on his way, through a bad rain storm. Mrs. Radcliff was suspicious he was the person that was guilty; but being determined to know the truth and have it known, she obtained two warrants from a justice on Monday evening, one against Gen. Van Buren and the other against Colonel Varian. Upon the trial of the said Pagant Van Buren, Gen. Stedford was called as a witness by the plaintiff, and he testified that he knew not who had broken the picture, but that he saw Mr. Hagerman empty the pot into the bed—that he saw it too late to prevent it, or he would have prevented it—these two men were alone in the room at the time. After the general's testimony, the suits were both withdrawn, and I was directed to proceed as I have against Hagerman."

"The signature is, for the present, kept in reserve."

From the day of the publication of the above letter to the present time, neither Hagerman, nor any friend for him, ever called on Mr. Coleman to contradict the facts stated in the letter, or to complain of the publication. On the contrary, the facts were confirmed as precisely stated by a respectable witness.

A FRIEND.

One of our latest London papers, in noticing the advance of cotton, remarks as follows: "When we consider the extent and importance of the cotton manufacture, that it employs nearly ten times as many individuals as any of our other manufactures—that the annual amount of the sales in it is from 40 to 50 millions sterling, it will be found that there can be no more certain mark of the revival of our trade and manufactures than the great rise which has lately taken place in the raw material. If that rise was occasioned by a diminution of the supply, nothing could be inferred from it as proving that the manufactures were again busily employed, and the workman receiving his wages. But the truth is, that the cause of the rise in the price of cotton is, not that there is a smaller supply of the article in the market, but that there is a great increase in the demand. And with this all the accounts from the manufacturing towns correspond. Every mill and loom is again at work, and the workman receiving his wages."

The following official letter sets at rest the important question of projected additional duty on timber of our colonies in North America, and also gives a pledge that no alteration is contemplated in the duty on timber from foreign states:

Office of Committee of Privy Council for Trade, Whitehall, February 20, 1818.

SIR,—I am directed by the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade to acquaint you, for the information of the Committee of the Ship Owners Society, on whose behalf you have addressed a memorial to their lordships, respecting the duties on timber, that upon a full consideration of all the circumstances of the case, and more particularly with reference to the act 55 Geo. 3, chap. 86, (by which timber from the British North American colonies is exempted from the duty till the 25th March, 1830) it is not at present the intention of his majesty's government to submit to parliament any alteration of the law, as it now stands, in respect to the importation of timber, whether from our own colonies or from foreign states.

I am to add that, under these circumstances, the Lords of the Committee do not think it necessary to give the members of the Ship Owners Society the trouble of attending their lordships as proposed by your letter of the 20th December last, on this subject.

Extract of a letter from Blue-Hill, Maine, dated March 6th.

"We have had an abundance of snow, without any rain, until last Sabbath night at which time a powerful rain commenced. On Monday a very singular occurrence took place: There was a drift of snow under the precipice of Blue-Hill mountain, judged to be about fifteen feet deep, over which the water was seen running on Monday morning; and at about ten o'clock, this huge mass of snow, by the pressure of water above it, slid, all clear to the ground, beginning about five rods in width, carrying all before it above the surface of the ground. The obstacles it met with, were a small ledge of loose rocks, some of which were lacerated in circumference; the second was a rail fence, 15 rods of which were instantly swept before it; it then made its way down the mountain, sweeping the rocks, bushes, and every thing before it, a distance of more than eighty rods, when it came in contact with a heavy stone wall, eight or ten rods of which were swept clear to the ground; then crossing the road took about the same length of wall as before mentioned. All this monstrous mass of snow, rails, posts, bushes, rocks, &c. were lodged on the flat ground, a few rods to the eastward of Mr. Phineas Osgood's house.

"Some of the rocks, which were judged to weigh more than a ton, were carried more than fifteen rods, and are now lying on the top of that huge heap. Had Mr. Osgood been ten or fifteen minutes sooner in getting his cattle to water, they would probably all have been destroyed, for he had just turned them out of his barn, to go to their usual place to water, which was in the wake of this powerful Snow Slide."

The following description of Horses, Horned Cattle, and Sheep, Dr. John de Alton White recommends to the choice of all connoisseurs and admirers of fine and profitable Stock.

Select a Horse of a cheerful animated countenance, small head, full eye beaming fire and spirit, small ears nicely set on, possessing quick characteristic vibration, wide in the throat, a large distended nostril, small long neck projecting from the shoulders in the curvilinear form of a rainbow, thin on the withers, straight back and short, broad and strong across the loins, a breech gently sloping, the tail a little drooping in the carriage, round carcass, not heavy in the chest, short straight legs, strong arms, and clean muscles, fetlock short, the joints even and possessing a delicate shining tegument back, elliptical hoofs, the concavity of the sole corresponding, standing upright on his limbs, a little wide behind, exposing the sword and gaskin, in movement pitching his legs fair and rampant, his height should be full 15 hands, combining in his motion a proud, majestic, and elevated appearance.

Choice of a Heifer.—Select one having a cheerful countenance, a small kind head and horns, a full eye, a long neck curved like a rainbow, and broad across the shoulders and back to the rump, a great space across the line and pins, the tail set on high in a line with the back, large square full quarters, full in the twist, the carcass deep round and very spacious, deep in the chest, the legs short, strong and clear, the arm indicating strength, a fine sappy hide, loose on the frame, the udder large, full, and the paps projecting forward, her motion supple and sprightly, with a majestic appearance.

Description of a Sheep.—The countenance cheerful, a nice head, and full eye, long kind neck, the ears nice and well set on, a straight broad flat and square, strong across the loins, large full quarters, round and long in the carcass, short legs, standing upright on them, the pelt long stapled, close and very fine.

ANTHONY KALE respectfully informs the ladies and gentlemen of Alexandria, that he has opened a Confectionary Shop, on King-street, one door below Mr. Bloxham's, where he constantly keeps on hand all kinds of cake, cordials, candies, fruit, nuts, &c.
Country merchants can be supplied with the above articles by wholesale on the most reasonable terms, and parties with all kinds of cake at one day's notice.
ALSO,
STOMACHIC BITTERS.
These celebrated bitters are composed purely of vegetables of the most innocent, yet specific virtues, and are infinitely superior to any thing yet discovered, for restoring weak and decayed constitutions, destroying worms, cleansing and strengthening the stomach, increasing the appetite, and by the frequent use of them, they are a certain preventive against those complaints so common in the spring and fall seasons, such as intermittent fevers, and agues, long autumnal fevers, dysenteries, &c. They are also of infinite service to those in the scorching line, who make long voyages at sea, and are exposed to unhealthy climates; a preventive against contagious disorders—they are also a very pleasant bitter and are particularly recommended for the use of Travelers and Public houses, as well as private families.

Sully for Sale.

THIS Estate, situated in the county of Fairfax, twenty two miles from Alexandria, and the same distance from Georgetown, contains about seven hundred and fifty acres. Little River Turnpike passes through it half a mile from the dwelling house. The situation is handsome, and remarkably healthy; the water is good and abundant. The soil which was originally excellent, has for some years past had the advantage of improving husbandry, Plaster of Paris acting with powerful and immediate effect on all grasses and grains. The fields present a good surface for cultivation, and those now untillied are covered with red-clover. The orchards are very large and thrifty; the collection of table fruit is choice and various. The mansion is spacious and well constructed; the out-houses are conveniently situated, and the whole have been lately thoroughly repaired and painted. The farm houses, which are all nearly new, are expensive and excellent in their kind.

For a gentleman of leisure this would be a delightful residence; and a profitable estate for an active farmer. The title is indisputable, and perfectly unincumbered.

A number of well taught orderly young men, with good stocks and farming utensils of all kinds and the crops of the present year if desired, will be at the command of the purchaser.

Application may be made to the subscriber, living on the premises, next the post-office at Pleasant Valley, in Fairfax. FRANCIS LIGHTFOOT LEE, September 19. tuth

Any one wishing to purchase may apply to ROGER JONES, Alexandria. Also, a very valuable LOT, containing 140 acres, being a part of the late Mr. John Turberville's tract—within 6 miles of Georgetown, 3 from the Little Falls Bridge, and near to the turnpike leading from thence to Wiley's, in Fairfax county, Va. A great proportion of this land is exceedingly well timbered; and that part which is not, is so recently cleared as to be in an active state for cultivation, and already in a productive condition. Burr Mill-Stone Making. THE Subscriber wishes to inform his friends and the public, that he has on hand a good supply of the first quality Burr Blocks. His shop is near Col. Peyton's store, where he can supply all Mill-stones, at the shortest notice with first rate Mill stones, and which he will warrant equal if not superior to any in the United States, and will sell them at the most reduced prices—the workmanship superior to any in the district. French Creek Boarding School.

The following is published for the information of Parents:

HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS. With this view I have purchased the FARMER'S CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Narristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pikesland and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniences for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.

In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their age, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.

The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter. The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.

Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to EMMOR KIMBER, 2d md. St. SU

Fan-Sash Making.

METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke street. The want of a Metal Fan-Sash Manufactory in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and others, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expence in procuring the necessary preparations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.

Gentlemen, in the country, by sending the dimensions of their sashes, can have them made at the same price as if in town. JAMES T. HOLLAND, February 19.

County of Alexandria, ss. ON the petition of WILLIAM HATTON, an insolvent debtor, confined in the jail of Alexandria county for debt—Notice is hereby given to the creditors of the said William Hatton, that on the first Monday in May next, at the court-house of the said county, the oath prescribed by the act of Congress of the United States, entitled "an act for the relief of insolvent debtors within the District of Columbia," will be administered to the said insolvent, and a trustee appointed, unless sufficient cause to the contrary be then and there shown. Ordered, that this notice be advertised in both papers published in Alexandria, once a week for three weeks before the said first Monday in May next.

Valuable Family Medicines. JUST received, direct from the proprietors, the following valuable MEDICINES, all of which have been in use for a number of years past, in almost every part of the United States; have been highly patronized by people of the first respectability; and approved by those who have had occasion to make use of them, for the cure of those disorders for which they are severally calculated.

Dr. Lee's Genuine (Windham) Bilious Pills. Universally known and used throughout the United States as a family medicine. The fame of these pills has become so great, that many have attempted to counterfeit them—to guard against this, the proprietors have procured a stereotype label, and each box of Genuine Lee's Pills will hereafter be enclosed in one of these labels, with these words on the sides: "Lee's Genuine Windham Bilious Pills," and on the end of the label the words, "Samuel Lee, patentee, &c. I. Thompson, agent, joint proprietor," &c. and should any be offered for sale without said label on them, the purchaser may be apprised that they are counterfeit.

Dr. Thompson's celebrated Eye Water. For the cure of inflamed and sore eyes of almost every description. This valuable preparation comes highly recommended from the most respectable sources. Price 50 and 25 cents a bottle.

Dr. Rawson's Genuine Itch Ointment. A certain and safe cure for that disagreeable complaint, as well as other eruptions of the skin. Price 37½ cents a box.

Dr. Rawson's Anti-Bilious and Stomachic Bitters. For weakly and infirm constitutions. Price 37½ cents a box.

Hinckley's Infallible Remedy for the Piles. A most valuable medicine. Price 50 cents a box.

Thompson's Aromatic Tooth Paste. For whitening and preserving the teeth—it may be used with the greatest safety. Price 50 cents a box.

Specific Drops for the Tooth Ache. Which, in almost every case, gives instant relief in that distressing complaint. Price 37½ cents a bottle.

Cooley's Vegetable Elixir, for Coughs, Asthmas, Consumptions, &c. A very valuable medicine in those complaints. Price 50 cents a bottle.

For sale, in Alexandria, by Dr. Rich'd. H. Little; in Washington City, by Dr. David Ott; in Georgetown, by Dr. John Ott, Ohio M. Linthum & Co. and Nathaniel Jewett.

James Kennedy & Son, RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE'S MEDICINE STORE, No. 45, Maiden lane, New-York a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm destroying Lozenges. Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or fullness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar title so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known. Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Terebra or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina or short fat white worm; and lastly, the Tenuis or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS and MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended.

Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age. They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance; they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir. A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.

To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.
